The Year of the Fire Horse

17 February 2026 to 5 February 2027

In the traditional Chinese calendar this is 丙午年 Bǐngwǔ nián, Yang Fire Horse Year.

It's a year that crackles with momentum, independence, and bright, untamed energy.

The Horse represents freedom, movement, charisma, and a love of open spaces. Act decisively, go for passion over restraint, and take this opportunity to reinvent yourself. This year is considered a turning point, rewarding courage and punishing stagnation.

Fire Horse energy can burn hot and fast. Balance your enthusiasm with reflection, so you don't combust! Direction matters as much as speed, take some time to consider where you want to be in another year.
